A CHILD POISONED

LITTLE BOY DIES FROM EFFECTS OF CARBOLIC ACID

Is a Son of the Le Roys, Colored People of This Place—Boy Has Been in Charge of Portland People Since the Stabbing of His Father by Ira Horton—No Particulars Are Yet Known of the Poisoning, Further Than the Boy Drank Carbolic Acid.

While the mother was in Pendleton attending her husband, who is recovering from the effects of razor cuts, Olin Le Roy, the 18-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward LeRoy, of this city, died in Portland last night of carbolic acid poisoning. Mrs. LeRoy was notified at once of the fatal accident to her son and left on a late train for Portland. The father, because of his injuries, was unable to go. The LeRoys are colored.

Just how the child obtained the acid is not known. He was staying with a woman in Portland, while Mrs. LeRoy returned to Pendleton to nurse her wounded husband. It is presumed he secured the bottle of poison from a table and drank it before anyone who knew of the accident.

The father of the child was seen this afternoon. He had not yet learned of the death of his son. He viewed the matter calmly and stated that if the boy died he would be buried in Portland.

LeRoy was attacked by Ira D. Horton, another negro, on the morning of November 14, and seriously slashed with a razor. He is able to be out of bed but is still in a very weak condition.

HIGH-CLASS MINSTRELS.

Professional Work by First-Class Amateurs.

The first of two minstrel performances to be given by Pendleton Aerie No. 28, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will take place at the Frazer theater this evening. Eagles in gala attire paraded the streets at noon today, headed by Grand Marshal McGinnis, mounted on a prancing steed, and Past Worthy President "King" Platzoeder, crowned with a silk hat and riding in an automobile.

It is bound to be funny, the show tonight. That is what the Eagles say, and they declare that anyone who doubts their word can come and see for himself and be satisfied. Aside from the comical features of the performance, there will be some high-class singing and some clever dancing.

The chorus includes some of the

ACKERMAN TO SPEAK.

Oregon's Superintendent to Deliver an Address Before Washington Teachers.

The Washington State Teachers' Association will meet in Spokane during the last three days of December, and a strong program has been prepared, says the Salem Statesman. One of the principal numbers will be an address from Oregon's superintendent of public instruction, J. H. Ackerman, who has chosen as his subject, "The Public School System From the Standpoint of a State Superintendent of Public Instruction."

Superintendent Ackerman has now completed the year's labor so far as attending teachers' institutes in Oregon is concerned, and will spend the remainder of the year in his office.

Leave for California.

W. M. Scott, wife and son, Ira, of Helix, leave in the morning for Long Beach, Cal., where they will spend the winter, expecting to return home about March 1. They will probably stop at Medford and Salem en route, to visit for a short time at each place. They are delighted with the climate of Southern California, for a winter resort, and Mr. Scott declares he will not miss a winter there as long as the climate remains as salubrious as it is now. Mrs. E. A. Mann, of Fossil, formerly of this city, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott, will also join the party at Arlington for a trip to California.

Roscoe Bryson's Boy.

The Eugene Guard, of Friday, gives the following account of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bryson, formerly of this city: Better than turkey and cranberry sauce and all the accessories thereto, was the Thanksgiving offering to Attorney and Mrs. R. S. Bryson on November 24, 1904, when the stork brought to their home a bouncing baby boy, weight 9 3/4 pounds, and his name is Roy Griffin Bryson, to which the delighted papa says his lordship already responds when so addressed in the language known only to wee babyland. Mother and child doing well.

City Jail Crowded.

The city jail was so crowded last night that Marshal Carney this morning turned out two men charged with drunkenness in order to make room for the other prisoners. There are now 12 men confined there. The prisoners at the county jail also number a dozen.

OFFICERS ELECTED

NEW LISTS FOR WOODMEN AND WOODCRAFT.

Pendleton Camp Woodmen of the World Has Nearly 500 Active Members and Is the Largest Lodge in the City—Both Daphne and Pendleton Circles of Woodcraft Have Elected New Officers and Both Are in a Prosperous Condition.

The Woodmen and Woodcraft organizations of Pendleton have elected new officers for the ensuing term of six months, and are all in a most prosperous condition.

Pendleton Camp No. 41, Woodmen of the World, held an election last Saturday night, at which the following officers were elected: Counsel commander, P. A. Anderson; advisory lieutenant, F. H. Preher; banker, Thomas Fitz Gerald; clerk, J. P. Walker; escort, F. A. Swingle; watchman, J. W. Dyer; sentry, D. E. Cargill; manager, J. E. Beam; past counsel commander, Sam Love.

The camp has now nearly 500 members and is the largest lodge in the city. Initiations are made at every meeting and the order is in a prosperous and harmonious condition.

Daphne Circle Elects.

Daphne Circle No. 2, Women of Woodcraft, has just elected new officers for the ensuing six months, as follows: Guardian neighbor, Mrs. Nina Nelson; adviser, Mrs. Sarah McBride; magician, Nellie Davis; attendant, Nancy Follett; inner sentinel, J. P. Walker; outer sentinel, Mrs. Annie Weber; captain of the guilds, H. M. Sloan; manager, Mrs. Louise Thorn; clerk, Mrs. Johanna Bollerman; banker, Eva L. Walker; past guardian neighbor, Mrs. H. M. Sloan.

This circle meets on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, at Secret Society hall, and is in a highly prosperous condition. A Thanksgiving banquet was served at the hall and initiations are made constantly.

Pendleton Circle Officers.

Pendleton Circle No. 527, Women of Woodcraft, has also elected new officers for the ensuing six months, and is in first-class condition, financially and fraternally. Following are the new officers: Guardian neighbor, Mrs. Minnie Stillman; adviser, Mrs. Nellie Beam; magician, Minnie Wren; clerk, Mrs. W. D. Fletcher; banker, Mrs. Mary Johnson; attendant, Miss Edyth Crockett; captain of the guilds, Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall; inner sentinel, Mrs. Ida Olcott; outer sentinel, Dr. J. L. Miller; musician, Ethel Kimball, and past guardian neighbor, Mrs. Sarah Catching.

This circle meets in Secret Society hall on the first and third Wednesdays of the month, and is one of the most active circles in the state.

FROM W. E. POTWINE.

Former Rector of the Church of the Redeemer Writes From Honolulu.

In a private letter from Rev. W. E. Potwine, formerly rector of the Church of the Redeemer of this city, he says to the East Oregonian, that himself and family are enjoying the best of health.

The delightful climate of the Sandwich Islands is even more salubrious and beautiful than ever. Mr. Potwine says the foliage, trees and shrubs are just as green and luxuriant as in May. He is wearing a light linen suit, which is amply warm, even with a stiff ocean breeze blowing.

In the letter he speaks of the arrival at Honolulu of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hughes, on November 16. Mr. Hughes was formerly Miss Christine Proebstel of Weston, whose marriage to Mr. Hughes took place in Portland on October 21. They are now on their wedding trip, and after visiting the Islands for a short time, will return to Santa Fe, N. M., where they will reside in the future.

HILD-UP MAN APOLOGIZED.

But He Separated Switzer From $4.50 Just the Same.

"A thousand pardons, Mr. Switzer, if I had known who you were, I wouldn't have held you up." This is the statement Ed Switzer declares was made to him late Saturday night by a highwayman.

"I was going home late Saturday night," said Switzer, "when a man held me up at the point of a revolver. When he saw who he had he begged my pardon, but insisted that I give him enough money to get out of town. I gave him about $4.50, all the loose change I had, and he went away satisfied."

Switzer says he cannot give a very accurate description of the man he alleges held him up. "I wouldn't appear against him if he were caught," he remarked, "for I must say he treated me real nice."

FOR LECTURE COURSE.

The Redpath Lecture Bureau Would Make Arrangements With Women's Clubs of This City.

F. A. Shaw, representative of the Redpath Lyceum and Lecture Bureau, is in the city today conferring with the women's clubs, in an effort to organize a lecture and entertainment course for the winter months, under the auspices of the clubs.

Among the features that would be available for the Pendleton course are the following attractions: Franklin Pierce Jolly, a noted lecturer, the Saunders Concert company, composed of four high-class musicians; the Chicago Lady Entertainers, in readings and music; Ralph Bingham, an entertainer; Prof. W. J. Clark, radium and wireless telegraphy, and Albert Armstrong, dramatic picture plays.

A course of these high-grade entertainments has been arranged for many other western towns, and Mr. Shaw hopes to bring a number of the best attractions here, under the combined clubs.

STOLE A CALF.

Butchered and Cut Up on the Premises, for Perry Houser.

A yearling calf belonging to Perry Houser, was killed in his slaughter house west of town, sometime Saturday night, and the hind quarters carried away. It is not known who committed the deed. The animal was confined in a pen adjoining the slaughter house. It was roped and led into the house, where its throat was cut. The butchers then cut the calf in two and carried the hind quarters to the river, where it was skinned.

It is thought that perhaps a party of tramps committed the crime and took the meat down the river, where they prepared a feast.

Returned to Portland.

Tom Nye, prominently known in Pendleton because of his hypnotic powers, departed this morning for Portland to resume his duties with Tall & Gibbs, household furnishers, after a visit of three months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nye. Mr. Nye spent his boyhood in Pendleton, but for the past several years had resided in Spokane.

Monster Drills at Work.

Two portable steam boilers, one of 20 and the other of 6 horse power, have been received by the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company with which power will be generated for driving four drills into the lava rock. The two boilers, with their big steel drills, it is stated, will do more work in a day, than 300 men.—Crook County Journal.

Good Messenger Service.

A good many comparisons are being made by the citizens of Walla Walla in the matter of messenger service by the local telegraph companies. In one business house several calls were sent in yesterday and each time the call was answered in less than a minute from the time it was turned in.—Walla Walla Union.

Address on Home Missions.

Mrs. Roberts, the general organizer for the Woman's Home Missionary Society, will visit Pendleton shortly. She will give an address on home mission work at the Thompson street Methodist church next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited.

Snow on the Mountains.

A slight fall of snow visited the high peaks near Meacham last night, several of the box cars arriving in the early morning having a trace of snow upon them.
